

Descendants of John Finch

Generation No. 1

1. JOHN² FINCH (ABRAHAM¹) was born Abt. 1595 in England, and died 5 Sep 1657 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut (Source: Stamford Town Records, 1:19, "John Finch d. 5 7 [Sept.] 1657."). He married (1) ? Abt. 1620. He married (2) MARTHA BRETT Abt. 1634 in Watertown, Massachusetts. She was born Abt. 1608 in Tenterdens, Kent, England, and died Abt. 1681 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

Notes for JOHN FINCH:

John Finch, came to New England with the "Winthrop Fleet" in 1630 and settled first at Watertown, Massachusetts, in 1632. In Governor Winthrop's Journal, under the date of 30 September 1630, the following comment was entered: "Finch of Watertown had his wigwam burnt and all his goods." Since John Finch is the only "Finch" appearing in the Watertown records, it appears that this refers to him, although it is possible that it may refer to his believed brothers, Daniel (d. Fairfield, Connecticut, 1667) or Abraham. Donald Lines Jacobus, however, believed that Abraham was a son of Daniel, not brother. Another possible brother is Joseph Finch of Roxbury, Mass., died January 173/4 without issue, since John named one of his sons Joseph Finch.

The first definite record of John Finch in the early records is at a court hearing held at Boston 7 November 1632: "John Finch is ffined 10s. for wanting (lacking) armes for his man & for being absent himselfe from traineing" (Shurtleff, Records of Massachusetts, 1:102). This is the earliest record of his presence in New England.

John Finch is recorded as receiving a grant of four acres of land in Watertown, Mass. 28 February 1636/7, lot number 83 (The Records of Watertown, Mass., Lands, Grants, and Possessions, 8). The Watertown Land Records state that the basis for determining the amount of acreage to be granted was "allowing one Acre for a person, & likewise for cattle valued at 20 lb ye head." One can only speculate that in the case of John Finch, two acres represented himself and his wife, and that the other two acres represented cattle--the children being yet too young to be accounted. The next year, he likewise received an additional four acres (lot 31) on 26 June 1637 based upon the same requirements (The Records of Watertown, Mass., Lands, Grants, and Possessions: p. 13).

At a Court of Assistants held at Cambridge on 5 June 1638 it was recorded: "Laurence Waters Wife was enjoyned to give John ffinch 18d & Nico: Theale to give Jno ffinch 18d & Edward Lambe to give him 2s & Lambe was fined 15s 6d for his contempt, & all of them were admonished to avoyde dancing" (Shurtleff, Records of Massachusetts, 1:223).

John Finch was still a resident of Watertown, Mass., until the spring of 1642, for his name is listed first among those who drew land, receiving 91 acres on 10 May 1642 (The Records of Watertown, Mass., Lands, Grants, and Possessions: 18). This is the last definite mention of him at Watertown, except that in 1644 the lands of John Winter are described as "bounded the East with John Finch . . ."

Earlier genealogists, such a James Savage, Henry Bond, Frank R. Holmes, and Charles E.

Banks have unanimously stated that John Finch removed from Watertown, Mass. to Wethersfield, Conn. Judge Sherman Adams, a noted authority on Wethersfield history, however states: "I find no evidence that this man ever resided in Wethersfield, excepting the fact that he was one of the pioneers of Stamford, a Wethersfield Colony."

The next definite note of him is in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut in October 1642, when "Jo. ffinch" received a grant of 6 acres of marsh and upland from the Town of Stamford. From this it is perfectly clear that John removed directly from Watertown to Stamford, probably due to the influence of his brother Daniel, who removed there from Wethersfield the year before.

The first marriage of John Finch was by 1620 but no record of his wife's presence in New England has been found. Their son John was born around 1620. The sons of his second marriage by 1635, wife unknown, were Isaac (born ca.1635) and Samuel (born ca.1638). JOHN married MARTHA by 1647 and they had sons JOSEPH (born about 1647) and ABRAHAM (born say 1648). JOHN died in Stamford on 5 September 1657. Widow MARTHA married JOHN GREEN in 1658 and had three more children, Born 1660 -1662.

Donald Lines Jacobus characterized the Finches as "perhaps the most difficult family he has studied," and published an extensive account of his research about them in History and Genealogy of the Families of old Fairfield, volume 1 (Fairfield, Connecticut, 1930; reprint. Baltimore, 1976, 1991), and the American Genealogist, volumes 19-21. Paul W. Prindle in his compiled Ancestry of Elisabeth Barrett Gillespie (Mrs. William Sperry Beineke) (New Orleans, 1976) provides a recent and authoritative description of JOHN and his family. Robert Charles Anderson in The Great Migration Begins - Immigrants to New England 1620-1633, 3 volumes (Boston 1995) has included the most recent and definitive information about JOHN FINCH. He and his research team stated that they relied heavily on the work of Jacobus and Prindle because little new material has been discovered since they published their work. The American Genealogist, Volume 9 to present (1932+). Notes for MARTHA BRETT:

Martha appears to have been the second wife of John Green. Her ancestry is uncertain, but the Will of Thomas Brett, 11-13-1646, of Tenterden, Kent, "gentlemen", makes reference to "my sister Finche, now wife of Mr. John Finch", but does not mention New England, where they lived for 16 years prior. After his (John Finch) death, she married John Green.

Children of JOHN FINCH and ? are:

2. i. JOHN³ FINCH, b. Abt. 1620; d. 19 Jun 1685, Huntington, Long Island, New York.
3. ii. ISAAC FINCH, b. 1630, York, Yorkshire, England; d. 23 Nov 1702, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

Children of JOHN FINCH and MARTHA BRETT are:

4. iii. SAMUEL³ FINCH, b. Abt. 1635, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut; d. 28 Apr 1698, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
5. iv. JOSEPH FINCH, SR., b. 23 Nov 1640, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut; d. 12 Mar 1713/14, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
- v. MARTHA FINCH, b. Abt. 1645.
- vi. ABRAHAM FINCH, b. Abt. 1648; d. 1708, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

2. JOHN³ FINCH (JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born Abt. 1620, and died 19 Jun 1685 in Huntington, Long Island, New York. He married HANNAH MARSH 8 Nov 1652.

Notes for JOHN FINCH:

From the papers of Donald Lines Jacobus in the Connecticut Historical Society, Mr. Jacobus gives us the following:

John Finch, second of the name, and his family, are hard to trace, because he moved about so much and lived mainly in towns where few or no vital records were kept. In 1654 John Finch "senior" testified [New Haven Colony Records, 2:75], which warrants the conclusion that he had a son John. The younger John appears in early records of Westchester, across the New York border, 1656-1659. About 1653 he married Hannah Marsh, the young widow of Launcelot Fuller of New Haven, who had a child, Mary Fuller, by her first husband. On 1 June 1652, Jonathan Marsh and widow Fuller (his sister) gave security for the portion of her child. On 4 Dec. 1656, we read, "She that was widdow Fuller, now ye wife of John Finch, who lives at Westchester, is come into ye Towne," to get medical care from Mr. Winthrop for her lame child; and is now pregnant. She is mentioned again in New Haven in 1657 and 1663; and in Feb. 1664/5, Mary Fuller, "daughter of goodw" Finch," was accused of flirtation [New Haven Town Records, 1:129, 292, 315; 2:53, 132].

We next hear of John Finch as an inhabitant of Oyster Bay on Long Island, N. Y., 16 Sept. 1661; and he sold land there 12 Jan. 1665/6, being then "of fairfield on ye Main," that is, of Fairfield on the mainland in Conn. [Oyster Bay Town Records, 1:41, 46]. The latter was just a year before the death of his uncle, Daniel Finch, in Fairfield. His next move was the Huntington, where he remained until his death.

On 23 Mar. 1667, John Finch purchased from Samuel Davis of Fairfield a house lot in Huntington, and the Town granted him land, 1 Jan. 1668. In 1666 he testified, along with Mary wife of Samuel Davis and others, regarding ownership of Eaton's Neck in Huntington. He gave a conveyance 25 Mar 1681, calling himself John Finch Sr.. In 1681 he disposed of his property, calling himself "mariner," to his son-in-law Nicholas Ellis, mentioning Mary wife of Nicholas, referring to the lot he bought from Samuel Davis, and giving the remainder to his son John Finch Jr. On 2 Jan 1682/3, complaint was made that John Finch Sr. is "deprived of some measure of his intellects," and to protect his remaining estate it was committed to the Constable and Overseer of the town. On 6 Oct. 1683, John Finch Sr., and John Finch Jr., both of "Huntington, sold to Edward Higby. Finally, there is a record that John Finch Senior died 19 June 1685 [Huntington Town Records, 1:98, 113, 87, 290, 310, 323, 325, 353, 327, 374, 432].

The index to the printed Huntington records, p. 566, indexing the death record, says "90 years old" --- the record itself DOES NOT state any age at all, and he could have been nowhere near such an age. He was probably nearer 60 than 90. It would appear from these records that he had a daughter Mary who married Nicholas Ellis, though it is possible this was the known step-daughter Mary Fuller. The latter, however, was apparently crippled by infantile paralysis, and John Finch's wife was often or for a long time in New Haven with her, to get the benefit of treatment from Gov. John Winthrop, who was a physician and a sort of consultant specialist in colonial Connecticut. It will appear from subsequent records that the son John Finch Jr. was certainly by Hannah (Marsh) Fuller; but we do not know when she died, and it is possible that John Finch Sr. had a second wife, mother of a daughter Mary who married Nicholas Ellis.

Child of JOHN FINCH and HANNAH MARSH is:

6. i. JOHN⁴ FINCH, b. 1657, Westchester County, New York.

3. ISAAC³ FINCH (JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 1630 in York, Yorkshire, England, and died 23 Nov 1702 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut (Source: Fairfield Probate Records, 5:5.). He married (1) ELIZABETH ANN BASSETT 8 Oct 1658 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut (Source: Stamford Town Records, 1:74, "Jsac and Elizabeth bassett, m. 8 [Oct.] 1658."), daughter of JOHN BASSETT and MARGERY B.. She was born 1637 in New Haven, New Haven County, Connecticut, and died 8 Nov 1703 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut. He married (2) HANNAH WEB (Source: Fairfield Probate Records, Vol. 5, p. 5, She is listed as his widow in his will and in the inventory of his estate, 16 Nov 1702.) Abt. 1680 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut. She was born Abt. 1660, and died 9 Nov 1703 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut (Source: Stamford Town Records, 135.).

Children of ISAAC FINCH and ELIZABETH BASSETT are:

- i. JOHN⁴ FINCH, b. 20 Sep 1659, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut (Source: Stamford Town Records, 98.); d. 17 Mar 1702/03, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut; m. SARAH PETTIT, 27 Aug 1676, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut; b. 27 Aug 1666.
7. ii. ISAAC FINCH, JR., b. 12 Apr 1662, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut; d. Bedford, Westchester County, New York.
8. iii. ABRAHAM FINCH, b. 5 Jul 1665, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut; d. 1716, Goshen, Orange County, New York.
9. iv. ELIZABETH FINCH, b. 14 Nov 1669, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
- v. MARTHA FINCH, b. 16 Jun 1672, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut (Source: Stamford Town Records, 76.).
- vi. ABIGAIL FINCH, b. Abt. 1678.

4. SAMUEL³ FINCH (JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born Abt. 1635 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut, and died 28 Apr 1698 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut. He married MARY SARAH HOYT 1665, daughter of SIMON HOYT and SUSANNA SMITH. She was born 1639.

Children of SAMUEL FINCH and MARY HOYT are:

- i. SARAH⁴ FINCH, b. 26 Jan 1661/62; m. JONATHAN HOLLY, 16 Jan 1749/50.
- ii. SAMUEL FINCH, b. 1663.
- iii. MARTHA FINCH, b. 1664; m. JONATHAN MEAD; b. 1689.
- iv. SUSANNAH FINCH, b. 1665; d. 4 Sep 1745; m. OBEDIAH SEELEY.
10. v. ABIGAIL FINCH, b. 1675, Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

5. JOSEPH³ FINCH, SR. (JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 23 Nov 1640 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut, and died 12 Mar 1713/14 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut. He married (1) RUTH HARDY MEAD. He married (2) ELIZABETH AUSTIN 23 Nov 1664, daughter of JOHN AUSTIN and CATHERINE ?.

Children of JOSEPH FINCH and RUTH MEAD are:

- i. ABIGAIL⁴ FINCH.
- ii. ELIZABETH FINCH.
- iii. SARAH FINCH.
- iv. MARTHA FINCH.
- v. JOSEPH FINCH, b. Abt. 1675.
- vi. SAMUEL FINCH, b. Abt. 1677.
- vii. JONATHAN FINCH, b. Abt. 1679.
- viii. BEMJAMIN FINCH, b. Abt. 1682.

Children of JOSEPH FINCH and ELIZABETH AUSTIN are:

- ix. BENJAMIN⁴ FINCH, d. 1741, Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut; m. (1) SUSANNA PEAT; m. (2) ELIZABETH PALMER.
- x. ABIGAIL FINCH.
- xi. MARTHA FINCH.
11. xii. JOSEPH FINCH, b. 1675, Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut; d. 1727, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

- xiii. SAMUEL FINCH, b. 1677, Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut; d. 1728, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
- xiv. JONATHAN FINCH, b. 1679, Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut; m. ABIGAIL BUTLER.
- 12. xv. ELIZABETH FINCH, b. 27 Feb 1702/03, Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

Generation No. 3

6. JOHN⁴ FINCH (JOHN³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 1657 in Westchester County, New York. He married (1) ELIZABETH ELLISON. He married (2) HESTER DAVIS 23 Nov 1693.

Notes for JOHN FINCH:

From the papers of Donald Lines Jacobus in the Connecticut Historical Society, Mr. Jacobus gives us the following:

Capt. John Finch, third of the name, may have been the child of whom Hannah (Marsh) (Fuller) Finch was mentioned as being pregnant in the 1656 record. That date accords well with the known facts of his career. He was with his father in Huntington until 1683 and probably until his father died in 1685. How early he settled in New York City, I have not discovered. He married first, by license, 25 Mar 1693, Hester Davis [NY Rec. 2:142].

John Marsh, "at present of New York, millwright, being sick," in his will dated 12 Jan. 1712/13, gave all his estate to "my cousin, John Finch, of New York, shopkeeper, during his life, and then to this wife Elizabeth, for life, and then to his children, Ann and Sara," with a trivial legacy to "my cousin, William Marsh, of Newport." [New York Wills, 2:409]. This Marsh connection identifies capt. John Finch of New York as the son of John Finch and Hanna Marsh. The will of Margaret Key, of New York, widow, being very aged, dated 11 Sept. 1713, proved July 1714, gave her house, land and other estate to "the two children of Captain John Finch, of New York, merchant, viz.: Ann and Sarah," and made Capt. John Finch executor [ibid., 11:13]. No relationship was here mentioned. Then, John Ellison, Sr., by his will proved 30 Dec. 1721, gave 100 pounds to "my sister, Elizabeth Finch," and 50 pounds to her two daughters.[ibid., 2:243].

It is thus proved that Capt. John Finch had a wife, Elizabeth Ellison, and by her two daughters, Ann and Sarah. It might be inferred there were all the children he had, but there is proof that he had a son, John of Stamford, who was born at least as early as 1693, and it seems likely that the son John was by an earlier marriage, and that the two daughters were all the children he had by Elizabeth Ellison.

On 5 Apr. 1715, the Town of Hempstead (Long Island) granted liberty to Mr. John Finch to set up a fulling mill on the stream where John Mash [Marsh] formerly had a fulling mill; and grant of the same was made, 29 April 1726, to Henry Seaman "on ye same terms that Mr. John Finch had it" [Hempstead Town Records, 2:479]. Here, again, the Marsh connection reappears.

Elisha Holly sold land in Stamford, Conn., 17 Mar. 1684, to Abraham Finch of Stamford, and Abraham assigned it to John Finch, son of John Finch of Huntington [Stamford Land Records, A:152]. This Abraham was son of the first John of Stamford, hence his assignment was to his nephew, John Jr. of Huntington, whom we identify as the later captain John of New York. This deed is important as showing the continuing interest of this branch of the family in Stamford. Of course this real estate purchased by John Finch Jr. of Huntington had to be conveyed on bequeathed sometime, and the following records seem to refer to it.

On 6 Mar. 1707, John Finch of New York City, shopkeeper, conveyed to John Webster of Stamford, land in Stamford in the first dividend. On 10 July 1714, John Finch of New York City, merchant, conveyed to his son, John Finch of Stamford. And on 4 Jan. 1727/8, John Finch of Stamford conveyed to John Clock of Stamford, right from "my father Capt. John Finch late of Stamford dec'd," being the whole of his right in the second division. [Stamford Land Records, B:280, 378; C:136].

These deeds taken together with the other records cited make it certain that the John Finch who was of Stamford in the next generation was son of Capt. John Finch of Huntington and New York City, and grandson of John and Hannah (Marsh) Finch of Huntington. There is no probate of Captain John Finch in either New York or Fairfield [Stamford was in the Fairfield Probate District until 1730, when a probate district was established in Stamford]. The last deed cited shows that he spent his last years in Stamford, doubtless at the home of his son John, and that he died not very long before 1728. He had sold or conveyed to his son John all his real estate, and the two daughters by Elizabeth Ellison were well provided for by the legacies of John Marsh, Margaret Key, and John Ellison, and perhaps also by their father when (and if) they married; so his property had been disposed of or only some personal effects remained not requiring probate action, and the son John apparently the only son, simply took possession of what was left.

One more record remains to be cited. On 6 Sept. 1720, John Finch Sr. of the City of New York sold to Henry James of Stamford, Conn., a house and lot in Greenwich, Conn. [Greenwich Land Records, 2:291]. I did not chance to pick up the purchase of this property in Greenwich, which lies between Stamford and the New York border. Apparently Capt. John had bought this house and lot, and his son John lived there a short time, for the eldest child of the son John was born in Greenwich in 1720, but his other children were born in Stamford.

Children of JOHN FINCH and ELIZABETH ELLISON are:

- i. ANN⁵ FINCH.
- ii. SARAH FINCH.

Child of JOHN FINCH and HESTER DAVIS is:

13. iii. JOHN⁵ FINCH, b. Abt. 1693, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut; d. 6 Nov 1747, New Canaan, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

7. ISAAC⁴ FINCH, JR. (ISAAC³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 12 Apr 1662 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut (Source: Stamford Town Records, 998.), and died in Bedford, Westchester County, New York. He married MARY RUNDLE 27 Apr 1704 in Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut, daughter of WILLIAM RUNDLE and ABIGAIL MILLS. She was born Abt. 1663 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

Children of ISAAC FINCH and MARY RUNDLE are:

- i. REBECCA⁵ FINCH, b. 17 Mar 1682/83, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut (Source: Stamford Town Records, 1:102, "Rebeca, dau. of Jsaak ffinch, b. 17 Mar. 1682/3.").
- ii. JACOB FINCH, b. 9 Oct 1691, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut; d. 15 Apr 1702, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
14. iii. BENJAMIN FINCH, b. 29 Jun 1695, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut; d. 1747, Northcastle, New York.
- iv. SARAH FINCH, b. 23 Jan 1686/87, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

8. ABRAHAM⁴ FINCH (ISAAC³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 5 Jul 1665 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut (Source: Stamford Town Records, 76.), and died 1716 in Goshen, Orange County, New York. He married MARTHA COUCH 10 Mar 1684/85 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut. She was born 13 Sep 1669 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut, and died in Sept. 8, 1725 (Source: Orange County, New York, Deeds, B-245, Martha ffinch widow & relict of Abrahm ffinch late of Goshen dec'd who died intestate, and Isaac ffinch eldest son & heir of Abrahm, convey to John Everet and Samuel Clowes of the same province, for 40 pounds, half of Lot 10 (the other half belonging to said Everet & Clowes), and also a certain piece of undivided land in Goshen which does belong to a half share right of said township. Martha made here mark, Isaac signed. Witnesses: Daniel Bull, Michael Duning.).

Children of ABRAHAM FINCH and MARTHA COUCH are:

15. i. ISAAC⁵ FINCH, b. 1696; d. Abt. 1723, Goshen, Orange County, New York.
- ii. ELIZABETH FINCH, b. Abt. 1698.

More About ELIZABETH FINCH:
Baptism: 15 May 1698

- iii. SOLOMON FINCH, b. 1700.
16. iv. NATHANIEL FINCH.

9. ELIZABETH⁴ FINCH (ISAAC³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 14 Nov 1669 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut (Source: Stamford Town Records, 76.). She married JONATHAN PETTIT Abt. 1687. He was born 23 Feb 1655/56, and died 1721 in Bedford, Westchester County, New York.

Children of ELIZABETH FINCH and JONATHAN PETTIT are:

- i. DAVID⁵ PETTIT, d. 1726.
- ii. NATHANIEL PETTIT, b. 1688, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut; d. 1768.
- iii. ELIZABETH PETTIT, b. 1690; m. NATHANIEL SCOFIELD; d. 1717.

10. ABIGAIL⁴ FINCH (SAMUEL³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 1675 in Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut. She married JOSEPH REYNOLDS, son of JONATHAN REYNOLDS and REBECCA HUSTED. He was born 1669 in Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

Child of ABIGAIL FINCH and JOSEPH REYNOLDS is:

- i. ABIGAIL⁵ REYNOLDS, b. 1701; m. DAVID REYNOLDS; b. 1699, Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

11. JOSEPH⁴ FINCH (JOSEPH³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 1675 in Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut, and died 1727 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut. He married ELIZABETH CLOSE, daughter of THOMAS CLOSE and SARAH HARDY.

Child of JOSEPH FINCH and ELIZABETH CLOSE is:

- i. ELIZABETH⁵ FINCH.

12. ELIZABETH⁴ FINCH (JOSEPH³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 27 Feb 1702/03 in Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut. She married EBENEZER KNAPP 7 Jan 1723/24 in Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut, son of JOSHUA KNAPP and ABIGAIL BUTLER. He was born 1704, and died 1750 in Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

Children of ELIZABETH FINCH and EBENEZER KNAPP are:

17. i. ELIZABETH⁵ KNAPP, b. 14 Oct 1725, Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
- ii. SARAH KNAPP, b. 20 Feb 1726/27.
18. iii. EBENEZER KNAPP, b. 23 May 1730, Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
- iv. EZEKIEL KNAPP, b. 22 Dec 1734, Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut; m. MARY ?.
19. v. REUBEN KNAPP, b. 6 Aug 1737.
- vi. HANNAH KNAPP, b. 21 Feb 1738/39.

Generation No. 4

13. JOHN⁵ FINCH (JOHN⁴, JOHN³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born Abt. 1693 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut, and died 6 Nov 1747 in New Canaan, Fairfield County, Connecticut. He married SARAH LOCKWOOD. She was born Abt. 1694, and died 15 Jun 1768.

Notes for JOHN FINCH:

From the papers of Donald Lines Jacobus in the Connecticut Historical Society, Mr. Jacobus gives us the following:

John Finch, fourth of the name, was born as early as 1693, and died at Stamford, 6 Nov. 1747; married Sarah -----, who married second, a Keeler, and died at Stamford in 1768. I have a suspicion that Sarah may have been a Lockwood, but the theory is totally unproved and I have no records to cite in support of the theory.

This John lived a short time in Greenwich around 1720 but moved to Stamford before 1722, or it should be said he moved vack there, since he was of Stamford when he received the deed from his father in 1714.

The first six children of John and Sarah Finch (also his own death) were recorded in Stamford, though the first child was recorded as having been born in Greenwich; the last four missed recording, but are proved by the probate.

Administration on the estate of John Finch was granted to John Finch 12 Dec 1747. Sarah Finch, widow of John of Stamford, was appointed gurardian to Peter, Ebenezer and Lidea, children of the deceased, minors not of age to choose a guardian, with John Finch as her surety, 5 Apr. 1748. The same date, Titus, Mary and Hannah Finch, minor children of John deceased, chose their mother Sarah Finch for guardian; John Finch was surety on her bond. On the motion of John Finch, Administrator on the estate of John Finch of Stamford, 27 Aug. 1750, distribution was ordered: To the Widow Sarah Finch "and to the childdren of ye said Deseast which are Ten vizt" --- John, NathII, James, Titus, Ebenr, Peter, Sarah, Mary, Hannah, and Lydia. [Stamford Probate Records, 1:335, 343, 346; 2:73].

Administration on the estate of Sarah Keeler of Stamford was granted 15 June 1768, to John Finch. Distribution was ordered to her children, the same ten named, and the name Finch added to the names of all four daughters. (ibid., 3:292, 303).

Children of JOHN FINCH and SARAH LOCKWOOD are:

- i. HANNAH⁶ FINCH.
- ii. PETER FINCH.
- iii. LYDIA FINCH.
20. iv. JOHN FINCH, b. 28 Jun 1720, Greenwich, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
- v. NATHANIEL FINCH, b. 29 Apr 1722, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut; m. HANNAH SCOFIELD, 15 Dec 1743, Ridgefield, Connecticut.
21. vi. JAMES FINCH, b. 23 Apr 1725, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
- vii. SARAH FINCH, b. 7 Apr 1728, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
- viii. TITUS FINCH, b. 13 Aug 1730, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
- ix. MARY FINCH, b. 12 Aug 1732, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
22. x. EBENEZER FINCH, b. 1734, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

14. BENJAMIN⁵ FINCH (ISAAC⁴, ISAAC³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 29 Jun 1695 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut (Source: Stamford Town Records, 1:122, "Benjamin, son of Jsack ffinch, b. 29 June 1695."), and died 1747 in Northcastle, New York. He married ELIZABETH PALMER 18 Apr 1717, daughter of JAMES PALMER and SARAH DENHAM.

Children of BENJAMIN FINCH and ELIZABETH PALMER are:

21. JAMES⁶ FINCH (JOHN⁵, JOHN⁴, JOHN³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 23 Apr 1725 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut. He married ABIGAIL SEELEY 18 Aug 1749, daughter of JOHN SEELEY and ABIGAIL BISHOP. She was born 2 Nov 1730 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

Notes for JAMES FINCH:

From the papers of Donald Lines Jacobus in the Connecticut Historical Society, Mr. Jacobus gives us the following:

On 11 Jan. 1758, John Seely, Gideon Seely, Abijah Seely, James Seely, Hezekiah Weed and Mary Weed alias Seely his wife, and James Finch and Abigail Finch alias Seely his wife, all of Stamford, conveyed to Elisha Leeds of Stamford, land in Canaan Parish that was set out to our brother Stephen Seely of Stamford, dec'd. [Stamford Land Records, F:272.]

John, Gideon, Abijah and Stephen Seely are recorded in the births as sons of John Seely and Abigail Bishop who were married 2 June 1720, so of course, Abigail Seely was also their daughter, though I do not find her birth recorded. This affords an interesting ancestral line, as Abigail Bishop was granddaughter of Rev. John Bishop of Stamford of Stamford whose wife was daughter of Deputy-Governor Stephen Goodyear of New Haven.

On 18 June 1761, James and Abigail Finch of Stamford conveyed to David Stevens, Jr., of same, land bound west and south on Abijah Seely, east on land set to the heirs of Susanna who was the first wife of the said David Stevens, Jr. [ibid., G:362.] This also was Seely land, and Susanna was another recorded child of John and Abigail (Bishop) Seely.

On 23 Dec. 1763, James Finch, late of Stamford, now of Crump Pond, Westchester Co., N.Y., conveyed to Titus Finch of Stamford. [ibid., C:343]. This I suppose was his homestead, as his wife did not join with him, and in Conn. the wife was not required to join except when the land was her property or in her right. This marks the removal of James Finch to Westchester County between 1761 and 1763. He may have had additional children to those recorded in Stamford.

James Finch served as a Private, Capt. Perez Fitch's Co., Stamford Militia, in service 16 days, Aug. 1757; and in 4th Co. (Capt. David Waterbury), 4th Regt. (Col. David Wooster), 29 Mar. to 14 Nov. 1758; French and Indian War.

In the 1790 census, James Finch (himself and one woman) was listed at North Salem, Westchester County; and also there was John Finch, with three females and a boy. In Salem [afterward South Salem, now Lewisboro], Seth, with two females and two boys under 16. These could well be James (just himself and wife in 1790, with children grown up and married), and his sons, James, Jr., and John; and Seth may have been a younger son born after 1760.

Children of JAMES FINCH and ABIGAIL SEELEY are:

28. i. MILICENT⁷ FINCH, b. 19 Jun 1751, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
- ii. JAMES FINCH, b. 9 Feb 1753, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
- iii. ABIGAIL FINCH, b. 5 Apr 1755, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
- iv. JOHN FINCH, b. 20 Aug 1757, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.
- v. SUSANNA FINCH, b. 4 Mar 1760, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut.

22. EBENEZER⁶ FINCH (JOHN⁵, JOHN⁴, JOHN³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 1734 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut. He married HANNAH NEWMAN 1753. She was born 1735.

Children of EBENEZER FINCH and HANNAH NEWMAN are:

29. i. AMOS⁷ FINCH, b. 12 Sep 1754, Bedford, Westchester County, New York; d. 22 Jan 1849, Cairo, Greene County, New York.
- ii. SETH FINCH, b. Bet. 1755 - 1765; m. RHODA ?; d. 4 Aug 1809.
30. iii. EZRA FINCH, b. 4 Aug 1757, Horseneck, Connecticut; d. 11 Sep 1839, Greenville, Greene County, New York.

23. BENJAMIN⁶ FINCH (BENJAMIN⁵, ISAAC⁴, ISAAC³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born Abt. 1722 in Amenia, Dutchess County, New York, and died 1790 in Amenia, Dutchess County, New York. He married SARAH KNAPP 13 Dec 1750 in Sharon, Connecticut, daughter of EBENEZER KNAPP and ELIZABETH FINCH. She was born 20 Feb 1726/27.

Children are listed above under (17) Sarah Knapp.

24. ISAAC⁶ FINCH (ISAAC⁵, ABRAHAM⁴, ISAAC³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born Abt. 1720 in Goshen, Orange County, New York, and died 3 Jul 1778 in Wyoming Valley, Pennsylvania. He married AMY KINNEY. She was born 17 Apr 1742, and died 1835 in Michigan.

Notes for AMY KINNEY:

From the "Biographical And Reminiscent History Of Richland Clay And Marion Counties, Illinois" [1909], page 212, we read:

"On the 4th day of July, 1778, Amy Finch, The widow of Isaac Finch, with the aid of faithful servants, loaded her household effects into a wagon drawn by a pair of oxen, and with all the children, excepting Isaac Finch and Amy Finch, who were visiting in Massachusetts, prepared to fly from the recent scene of the bloody carnival. As the wagon was about to pull out, with all the household goods and children, a number of Indians seeing one of the servants standing by the wagon, with savage yells and flourishing tomahawks, dashed out his brains, bespattering with blood and brains, the five-months-old baby of the deceased Isaac Finch and his widow, who was lying upon the bed clothing in the wagon. The name of this five-months-old baby was Solomon Finch, the last born. The widow of Isaac Finch, together with these children, then took their departure from the scene of the massacre, and after many days of tedious, tiresome and dangerous travel, made their way though swamp and wilderness for some three hundred miles to Genesee County, New York, where they were finally given shelter, food and clothing and abided until they were joined by the son and daughter who had gone on a visit to Massachusetts. They finally built them a house of logs and remained in this settlement for many years, and until the children were grown and married."

Children of ISAAC FINCH and AMY KINNEY are:

31. i. AMY⁷ FINCH, b. 1761.
32. ii. ISAAC KINNEY FINCH, b. 1763, Goshen, Orange County, New York; d. 1848, Luzerne County, Pennsylvania.
- iii. ENOS FINCH, b. 1766; d. 1814.
33. iv. JOHN FINCH, b. 6 May 1767.

25. AMOS⁶ FINCH (BENJAMIN⁶, BENJAMIN⁵, ISAAC⁴, ISAAC³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 3 Aug 1751 in Crum Elbow, Dutchess County, New York, and died 1845 in Lexington, Greene County, New York. He married MARTHA PARKS Abt. 1780 in Amenia, New York, daughter of JONAS PARKS and MARY ?. She was born 1760, and died 1 May 1831 in Lexington, Greene County, New York.

Notes for AMOS FINCH:

The following comments are by Paul R. Finch, Jan 21, 2005, from notes he made in 1976 after visiting the Beaches Corner Cemetery and from information taken mainly from the files of Mrs. Louis Rossi, late of Ravena, N. Y. which has been deposited in the Durham Center Museum, East Durham, N. Y. 12425 in 1965.

AMOS FINCH, b. ____ 1751, parents names unknown; birthplace unknown, d. ____ 1845, buried in beaches Corners Cemetery, Jewett (formerly Lexington heights), Greene Co. N. Y. His headstone reads: "Amos Finch, died 1845, A. 94." He married MARTHA PARKS (Biographical Review of Delaware County New York, Boston: Biog. Rev. Pub. Co., 1895, p. 88). Her headstone stands alongside of Amos' and reads: "Mavena (or Adena?) Finch, Dy, May 1, 1831." She is believed by Mrs. Rossi to be the daughter of Jonas Parks who served as second lieutenant of Humphrey's company on a list of officers who were elected 20 Mar. 1778 (Documents Relating to the Colonial History of the State of New York. v.15, p. 134, 283). She is also said to have had two brothers, Amos and Jonathan Parks.

Amos Finch is recorded as having served in the Revolutionary War (Biog. Rev., op. cit., p. 88, 189). However, he apparently received no pension (he is not to be confused with another AMOS FINCH [1754-1849] who lived in Cairo, New York, and did receive a pension, application file no. 313022, Pension Certificate no. 14633, Receipt Roll no. 13249. Mrs. Rossi believed that the receipt roll no. 13249 is actually that of the above subject Amos and not of the Amos from Cairo, but there is no proof of such an assumption. If such a receipt roll were on file it would appear that the subject Amos could have claimed a pension and that pension would have been recorded).

The Greene County records show no will or estate settlement of the subject Amos Finch of Lexington who died in 1845, but did have one for the Amos Finch of Cairo who died in 1849. Also, no land records are registered for the subject Amos in either Greene or Ulster County Records.

Census Records:

1790 (Heads of Families --- New York, 1790 Census, p. 73):

Amos Finch, Amenia Town, Dutchess Co., N. Y. 1-2-4.

Amos would have been 39 years old if born in 1751. Beside his wife he had two sons under 16 and three daughters. Amos may have married around 1780---his oldest son Jonas being born in 1782. Recorded in the same census, but living in the adjoining town of Washington were Abraham Finch, 1-1-6, Comfort Finch, 1-1-1, John Finch, 2-3-1, and William Finch, 1-3-4.

1800 Census (Amenia, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Nat. Arch. Microfilm pub. M32, roll 21, p. 138, no. 5380),

Amos Finch: 20010 40100 or 1 male 26-45; 3 males under 10; 1 female 16-26; 4 females under

10. If Amos was born in 1751 he should have been 49. The age bracket for Martha also appears to be too low. If she was the mother of Jonas, age 18, how could she be only 26? Jonas was not included in this census, neither was the other older son. The three males under 10 appear to be Benjamin (b. 1791), Amos Jr. and Abram (b. 1792). At Beaches Corners Cemetery there is a stone in the same family plot which reads: "Ira Finch, 1793". If this is their son Ira who died young in Lexington, how could the family be still listed in Amenia in 1800?

1810 Census Windham, Greene Co., N. Y., Nat. Arch. microfilm pub. M252, roll 27, p. 312): Amos Finch 03001, 31010.

Amos was probably living in the present Township of Lexington where he had resettled, and which was taken from Windham in 1813. Amos at this time would have been 59. The record shows him to be born prior to 1765-1784. Three males are shown to be born between 1795-1800 and three females born between 1800-1810.

1820 Census (Lexington, Greene Co., N. Y. Nat. Archives microfilm pub. M19, roll 110, p. 122R & 125): Amos finch 000001 00001.

Amos (69) and wife are listed as being 45 and over. No children are listed. In the same census is listed Amos, Jr.: 220001 11010.

1830 Census (Lexington, Greene Co., N. Y., Nat. Arch. Microfilm pub. M19, roll 110, p. 122R & 125). Amos Finch: 0000000010000 0000000100000.

Amos (79) is shown to be between the age of 60-70 and Martha is shown to be between 50-60. Also listed in the same census is Amos Jr., 2200001000000 1100010000000 and Abram, 1100001000000 1000100000000.

1840 Census: Not found!

According to Martha's headstone she had died May 1, 1851. If Amos was born in 1751 he would be age 89 in 1840. The 1840 Census for Lexington also shows Abraham, Benjamin, and Isaac Finch. Amos, being alone, may have been living with one of his sons. Jonas had relocated in Delaware Co, in 1855 (Biog. Rev. of Del. Co., p. 189). If Amos was visiting Jonas in 1840 he may have gone unrecorded. The 1840 census was the first one to record Revolutionary soldiers and the missing record of Amos deprives us from documenting the fact that he served in the Revolutionary War.

29. AMOS⁷ FINCH (EBENEZER⁶, JOHN⁵, JOHN⁴, JOHN³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 12 Sep 1754 in Bedford, Westchester County, New York, and died 22 Jan 1849 in Cairo, Greene County, New York. He married MARTHA ROWE 1784, daughter of THOMAS ROWE. She was born 19 Feb 1764, and died 23 Aug 1841 in Cairo, Greene County, New York.

Notes for AMOS FINCH:

Petition of Amos Finch of Cairo, Greene County, New York, dated 15 June 1844, shows that Betsy Finch, late of Cairo, New York, died 5 June 1844 at Cairo leaving no will. Petitioner is her father (Records, Surrogate Court, Green County, New York).

Petition of Ira Finch, dated 17 April 1849, shows that Amos Finch died 20 January 1849. It records that he left now widow and that the petitioner is a son of the deceased (Records, Surrogate Court, Green County, New York).

Amos Finch was pensioned for service in the Revolutionary War at a rate of $56.66 per annum (Certificate 12633, issued 6 June 1833, on file at the National Archives).

In his application for a pension dated 5 February 1833, Amos testified that he was seventy seven years of age and a resident of Cairo, Greene County, New York. He alleged the following: that he enlisted 1 January 1776 at nine Partners, Dutchess County, New York into captain Stanton's Company, Colonel Warner's Continental Regiment for a period of seven months. He contracted small pox in the retreat of St. John's Island and was discharged on or about 1 August 1776. He again enlisted in November of 1776 at Nine Partners into Captain Hermances Company, Colonel Graham's Regiment for a period of one month and was discharged at Peekskill, New York, on 1 Jan 1777. He again enlisted, after a period of illness, in the spring of 1778 into Captain James Talmadge's Company, Colonel Sutherland's/Hopkins Regiment, where he served two months. He again enlisted in the fall of 1780 into Captain James Talmadge's Company, Colonel Sutherland's Regiment for one month and was discharged at Fishkill, New York.

Amos testified in his pension application that he was born in Bedford, Westchester County, New York, in 1755 and lived during the Revolution at nine partners, Dutchess County, New York, and that he was a citizen of Cairo for 48 years. This would place his removal from Dutchess County to Greene County in 1785.

35. MARY⁷ FINCH (AMOS⁷, BENJAMIN⁶, BENJAMIN⁵, ISAAC⁴, ISAAC³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 1787. She married JOHN R. SCHUNEMAN 23 Dec 1813 in Katsbaan Dutch Church, Ulster County, New York, son of JOHN SCHUNEMAN and ANNA NEWKIRK. He was born 30 Nov 1788 in Saugerties, New York.

Notes for MARY FINCH:

According to DAR records we have the following information for a Lillie Sherrill, DAR ID: 12933

The National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution Lineage Book (1896), volume 13, page 353-4 (Submitted by Sylvia Hasenkopf):

"Born in New York. Wife of Horace Dyer Sherrill.

Descendant of Capt. John A. Witbeck, Amos Finch, James Mills, and John Lytle, all of New York.

Daughter of James Mills Stewart and Charlotte S. Schuneman, his wife. Granddaughter of Robert Stewart and Jane Mills, his wife; John Schuneman and Mary Finch, his wife.

Gr.-granddaughter of James Mills and Rebecca Lytle, his wife; Martin G. Schuneman and Catherine Witbock, his wife; and of Amos Finch.

Gr.-gr.-granddaughter of John Lytle and Eleanor Laurie, his wife; John A. Witbeck and Aneka Bronk, his wife. John A. Witbeck (1733-86), served as captain of the Fourth company, Eleventh regiment of Albany county militia. John Lytle and James Mills, who were born in Ireland, served in the militia from Charlotte county, where they died.

Amos Finch (1754-1849), served in the militia in Capt. Samuel Waters' company, Col. Roswell Hopkins' regiment."

Notice that this source identifies the Amos Finch who lived in Cairo, 1754-1849, as one of the sources for Mrs. Sherrill's claim for being a DAR. This would seem to be a mistake, since Mrs. Rossi says that this is in error since extant Bible Records of the later Amos shows no daughter by the name of Mary and descendants of the subject Amos claim that their ancestor did have a daughter named Mary.

Burial: Old Leeds Cemetary, Leeds, Greene County, New York

Children of MARY FINCH and JOHN SCHUNEMAN are:

56. i. CHARLOTTE S.⁸ SCHUNEMAN.
- ii. ANNA MARIE SCHUNEMAN.
- iii. MARTIN G. SCHUNEMAN, b. 14 Dec 1835.

Notes for MARTIN G. SCHUNEMAN:

MARTIN G. SCHUNEMAN. The owner of a farm located on section 33, Lapeer township, Lapeer County, is the son of John R. Schuneman, of Geneva, N. Y., a farmer and hotel-keeper in that portion of the country and who also served as a soldier in the War of 1812. Our subject's mother was Mary (Garrett) Schuneman, a native of Geneva, N. Y., where she met and married her husband and came too Michigan in 1836, settling upon the farm which our subject now occupies. Their first home here was a temporary shanty, which was soon replaced by a substantial log house.

The only neighbors at that early day were the Clark family, and their was only one little house in Lapeer Township at the time, but plenty of Indians, wolves, bears and deer, and their oversight of their domestic animals, and fowls was necessarily very close too keep them from the hungry fangs of the wolves. Our subject's parents were fairly successful and in comfortable circumstances, but they were in no wise exempt from the hardships incident too pioneer life. They had too go too Detroit with an ox-team for provisions, each trips consuming a week. Their tract comprised three hundred and twenty acres of land, which was partially timbered and all perfectly new. Our subject's father died in 1856; his widow survived him until 1881.

John Shuneman cleared a goodly portion of the homestead and built one of the first frame barns in the township, his death occurring immediately after its completion, so that the funeral services were held in the new barn. They were the parents of thirteen children, eight of whom are now living. They were active and consistent members of the Presbyterian Church, which they helped too organize and build. He was Democrat in politics and held some township offices.

Our subject was born December 14, 1835, in Geneva, N. Y. His education was acquired for the most part in the schools of Lapeer Township, Lapeer County, and he was reared on the home farm. Unlike many others of the early settlers, he never was obliged too work our for others. When forty-one years of age our subject was married too Libby Hurd, a daughter of William Hurd, a farmer in McComb County, Mich. She was born in this State in 1847, and received a common-school education. Our subject and his wife are the parents of two children--Blanche and Jay. The first-named was born September 11, 1878, and the latter November 18, 1880. They are in attendance at the local school.

Since six months of age our subject has lived upon the old homestead and his interest are naturally centered in this vicinity. He and his wife are members of the Congregational Church in the village of Metamora, having been so connected for over thirty years, they are also interested in Sunday schoolwork. Socially he of whom we write is a member of the Grange and has also taken an interest in the local school. Politically he is a Democrat.

Mr. Shuneman is the owner of one hundred and sixty acres, of which one hundred and twenty acres are under cultivation. Since coming into possession of the place he has cleared off twenty-three acres and made an attractive addition too the residence and added other improvements. He here carries on general farming and owns a large quantity of graded stock. Mrs. Shuneman's paternal grandfather was David Hurd, a soldier in the War of 1812. Her mother was Mary Jane (Eveland) Hurd, a native of Canada. Her parents came too Michigan in 1824, having cut their way through the wilds from Detroit. They were the parents of seven children, four of whom are now living. Of these Mrs. Schuneman was the third child and was born November 8, 1847, in Macomb county.

Notes for HENRY FINCH:

From the Delaware County, NY Genealogy and History Site BIOGRAPHICAL REVIEW, 4th Section - page 189, we read:

HENRY FINCH, a well-to-do, retired farmer of Sidney, Delaware County, N.Y., was born in Greene County, June 22, 1823, son of Jonas and Henrietta (Leonard) Finch. His father was a native of Greene County, and his mother of Dutchess County. Amos Finch, father of Jonas, served as a soldier in the Revolution; he was a farmer, and lived to the advanced age of ninety years. Jonas Finch was brought up in the county of his birth, whence he moved in 1833 to Delaware County, and took up one hundred acres of land. By hard work and energy he added to this until he had one hundred and sixty acres, and owned one of the finest farms in the neighborhood. He was the father of eleven children, of whom the following survive: Henrietta, widow of Alexander Bryan, residing in East Sidney; William and Jonas, at Masonville; Henry, the subject of this sketch; John, located in Tennessee; and Amos in Sidney Centre. Mr. Jonas Finch died at the age of seventy-three, and his wife aged eighty-one.

Henry Finch was educated in the district schools of Sidney, living with his parents and helping on the farm until he attained the age of twenty-one, when he hired himself out by the month. He followed this for several years, and, being of a frugal turn of mind, saved his money, which enabled him to buy his first land in the town of Masonville, a farm of fifty acres. He lived there for one year, when he sold out and moved to Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, where he bought an uncultivated tract of land of about one hundred and fifty acres, which he occupied for some time, bringing it into a good state of cultivation. At the end of about fourteen years he moved to Masonville, and there carried on the business of a general farmer for twenty-two years. In 1886 he moved to Sidney village, where he now lives retired. Mr. Finch is a veteran of the Civil War, having enlisted in 1862 in the One Hundred and Seventy-seventh Pennsylvania volunteer Infantry, Company A. He was in the service ten months, when his health gave way, and he was honorably discharged from the army at Harrisburg, Pa., August 5, 1863.

Mr. Finch was married March 1, 1849, to Mary J. Carr, who died August, 1880, aged fifty-one. By this union twelve children were born, eleven of whom are living, namely: Zaeuch, a farmer of Sidney; Sarah, wife of E. Teed, of Pennsylvania; Henrietta, wife of Duane Hand, of Otsego County; Louisa, wife of Robert Stewart, of Sidney; Anna, wife of Warren Hodge, also residing in Sidney; Maggie, wife of Edward House, of Tompkins; Henry Finch, of Franklin; Allie, wife of James Hodge, of Sidney; Norman and James, residents of Sidney; Nora, wife of E. Wheat, of Sidney.

On February 7, 1883, Mr. Finch married for his second wife, Mrs. Hannah Crouse, the widow of Abram Crouse, a farmer of Albany County, and mother of one child, Mary, wife of John Armstrong, of Unadilla. Mrs. Finch was born in Guilford, Chenango County, October 20, 1827, her parents being James and Catherine Lewis. They reared twelve children, six of whom are now living, namely: Mrs. Finch; Rensselaer Lewis, in Pennsylvania; Joseph Lewis in Michigan; Sally Ann, wife of David Loomis, of Sidney; Abiel Lewis, of Pennsylvania; Julia, wife of Norman White, of Bradford County, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Finch is a man of quiet and refined tastes, and in his old age enjoys a mental vigor which years have not impaired, his generous, kindly nature endearing him to neighbors and friends.

61. VICTOR⁸ FINCH (AMOS⁸, AMOS⁷, BENJAMIN⁶, BENJAMIN⁵, ISAAC⁴, ISAAC³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 12 Sep 1820 in Lexington, Greene County, New York, and died 1902. He married SARAH E. TAYLOR 30 Jan 1855, daughter of JAMES TAYLOR and CLEMENTINA HARSE. She was born 1834, and died 1945.

Notes for VICTOR FINCH:

From the Delaware County, NY Genealogy and History Site BIOGRAPHICAL REVIEW, 4th Section - page 175-77, we read:

VICTOR FINCH, a prominent citizen of Tompkins, Delaware County, N.Y., was born September 12, 1820, in Lexington, Greene County. The ancestors of Mr. Finch came from Holland to America with the early settlers of this country, and the family has been known in its history since that time.

Amos Finch, father of Victor, was born in Lexington in 1794, and died in 1868. After engaging in farming, in his native town for many years, he disposed of his property there, and purchased a farm in Maryland, Otsego County, where he lived for some time, subsequently removing to a farm that he bought in Tompkins. After the death of his wife, his eyesight failed; and he gave his property to his sons, passing his last days at the home of his son Victor, where he died November 16, 1868, at the age of seventy-four years. He was buried in the cemetery at Trout Creek. His wife, was Polly Merwin, also a native of Lexington; and she was the mother of six children — Lura, Victor, Samuel, Emmeline, Debias, and Wilson. Mrs. Polly M. Finch was herself the eldest of a family of fourteen children, of whom her brother, David Merwin, of Hensonville, now in his seventy-ninth year, is the only survivor. His earliest ancestors in this country came from Wales. His paternal grandfather, his father, and his uncle, Daniel Merwin, came to New York from Wallingford, Conn., soon after the Revolution, crossing the Hudson on a raft of their own construction, and traveling thirty miles, mostly by blazed trees, through a howling wilderness. They took up a tract of land in Greene County, where the father of Mrs. Finch cleared a small piece of land, sowed it with wheat, built a log house, and then went back to Connecticut, and married Thankful Parker, who returned with him to the new home, where the children were born.

Victor Finch passed his boyhood in Tompkins, attending the district school, and helping with the farm work. When seventeen he went to work for a Mr. Palmer, learning the carpenter's trade, and at twenty-one started out in life for himself, engaging in lumbering and farming. When he was thirty-five years of age, he purchased a farm in Manchester, Wayne County, Pa., where for fourteen years he engaged extensively in his old occupation of farming and lumbering. Selling his property there, he purchased in 1856 the farm where he now resides, comprising one hundred and eight-six acres. Besides raising crops and making maple sugar, he also operates a large dairy, keeping forty-five cows, doing much of the work of the place himself. He is strong and hearty, was never known to be ill in all his life, and although seventy-four years of age, is as active and energetic as when much younger.

January 30, 1855, Mr. Finch married Sarah E. Taylor, daughter of James and Clementina (Harse) Taylor. Both of Mrs. Finch's parents were born in Winford, Somersetshire, England, where they were married, four children being born in England, two of whom died in that country. In 1828 they sailed for America with their two children in the ship "Cosmo," the voyage occupying sixteen weeks and four days. The passage was an unusually rough one, the good ship being twice blown off the coast; but, after much suffering and narrow escape from shipwreck, the family reached New York City and settled on a small farm where Jersey City is now situated. For three years they lived there, and then moved to Honesdale, Pa., which contained at that time but one log house. The journey from the old home in Honesdale was made on foot with the children on their backs, a man driving an ox team containing all their worldly goods. The country to which they immigrated was a barren wilderness, abounding in wild animals, and was not particularly pleasing to Mr. Taylor. He accordingly removed to a tract called the French Woods, in Delaware County, N.Y., and here erected a bark cabin, in which he lived until able to build a log house. He proceeded to clear land on what is now called the Rolland farm, near Sand Pond, which is one of the largest in French Woods. Several years later he sold this property, and went to Bouchonville in the same county, where he carried on a hotel, which he afterward sold to purchase a farm in Manchester, Wayne County, Pa. Ten years later he disposed of this, and bought a farm near Lordville, Delaware County, consisting of one hundred and three acres; and here he lived until his death, which occurred January 14, 1871, the result of injuries received by being struck by the cars near his home. His wife died one year later, in 1872, and they sleep side by side in the cemetery at Lordville.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were the parents of ten children: John and Michael, born in England; Mary Ann, Nathaniel, Sarah E., Henry, and William, born in French Woods; Bessie, born in Bouchonville; and two others, who died in England. In 1848 Mr. Taylor again crossed the ocean, the death of his father, without a will, making his presence necessary in the settlement of the property. The passage over occupied three weeks; and the return trip, being very stormy, occupied seventeen weeks, both voyages being made in the ship Rappahannock of Liverpool. Mr. Taylor being the eldest son, and his father a wealthy farmer, his portion of the estate amounted to a comfortable fortune. His daughter, Mrs. Finch, was born July 14, 1837, in French Woods, and passed the early part of her life in Lordville, attending the district school, and residing with her parents until her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Finch are the parents of three children; Alva Wilson, born October 16, 1856; William L., born May 4, 1860; Elmer E., born February 6, 1863. All are natives of Manchester, Wayne County, Pa., and attended the district school on Knickerbocker Hill, assisting their parents on the home farm. The son, A. Wilson, married Susan Brown of Tompkins; and they have one child, Ava, born January 30, 1891. William L. Finch died July 19, 1862, at the age of two years; and Elmer works on the old home farm with his father and brother. Mr. Finch is profoundly respected for his upright character and honorable dealings.

Notes for EDMUND A. HOWES:

From the Delaware County, NY Genealogy and History Site BIOGRAPHICAL REVIEW, we read:

EDMUND A. HOWES, a worthy citizen of Tompkins, was born in this town February 27, 1857. The Howes family, which is of English ancestry, came to New York from Caped Cod. Edmund Howes, grandfather of Edmund A., was engaged in farming and lumbering in the town of Thompson, Sullivan County, where he erected a house, which still stands. His wife was Polly Fields; and they had the following family: George, Benjamin, Jesse, Samuel, Edmund, Deborah, Emilly, Elizabeth, and Jane. Edmund Howes died in 1838, having passed the greater part of his life in Thompson, where he was buried.

Jesse, the third son, was born in Bridgeville, and spent his boyhood on the home farm. When about twenty-one, he started out for himself as a carpenter and joiner, following that occupation until 1850, when, in company with his brother George, he purchased a tract of land on the Delaware River near Long Eddy, and here engaged in shipping lumber to Philadelphia. He was an excellent swimmer and an expert hunter, the hero of many thrilling adventures. After about eight years he sold his interest to his brother, and in 1855 purchased a tract of one hundred acres of timbered land on Bullock Hill, where he erected a log cabin, and began to fell the trees. He later built a frame house on the same site, and engaged in farming and dairying. He married Susan Jenkins, daughter of Horace and Anna (Vermilyea) Jenkins, of Roxbury, N. Y. She is still living, and is greatly esteemed by all. Her father was in his younger days one of the most prominent men of his town; he now spends much of his time with his granddaughter, Mrs. Howes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Howes were the parents of twelve children, namely: Anna F., widow of Charles Drake, a farmer of Tompkins, who died in 1881, and is buried on Knickerbocker Hill; Loomis; Horace J., who married Ella A. Drake, a sister of Charles Drake; Eva A., who married S. L. Niles, of Tompkins; Hiram J., a school-teacher; Edmund A., whose name heads this sketch; Annetta, who married Jesse Gardner, a physician in Anemdetta, Ohio; Emily J., the wife of Frank Clark, a butcher of Walton, of the firm of Clark & Webster; Samuel, who died at the age of two years; Mary E., who teaches school on Knickerbocker Hill; Arthur R., who follows the occupation of a butcher; Helen M., wife of Frank Wells, of Masonville; Frank C., who lives on the old homestead and carries on the farm.

Edmund A. Howes was educated in the district schools of his native town, and when eighteen began to teach in Peasetown, Broome County. He afterward taught at Bennettsville, Chenango County, and later five terms in Masonville, teaching sixteen terms altogether. January 1, 1883, he married Maggie E. Finch, daughter of Henry and Mary Jane (Carroll) Finch, of Sidney. The grandfather of Mrs. Jonas Finch was born in Cairo, Greene County, son of Amos and Martha (Parks) Finch. Amos Finch was a Revolutionary soldier, and engaged in farming in Dutchess County. Jonas married Henrietta Lennon, who lived to be eighty-seven years old, and died in 1874. His son, Henry Finch, father of Mrs. Howes, was born June 22, 1823, was a farmer in Masonville, but later bought land in Williamsport, Pa. In 1862 he enlisted in the war, in which he served ten months, returning to Pennsylvania after peace was declared. He now resides, retired from active work, in Sidney. His wife was Mary J. Carroll, daughter of Samuel Carroll, of Tompkins; and she was the mother of twelve children: Zaccheus, who married Rosetta Teed, of Sidney; Sarah, wife of Edgar Teed, of Stevensport, Pa.; Henrietta, who married Duane Hand, a farmer in Morris, Ontario County; Louisa, wife of Robert Stewart, of Sidney, who died in 1894; Anna, who married Warren Hodges, a farmer of Sidney; Maggie; Henry, who married Mary Bradley, of Tompkins; Emeline, who died at the age of sixteen; Almetta, who married

James Hodges, of Sidney; Nora, the wife of Edwin Wheat, a carpenter of Sidney; Norman, who married Bertha Gaylord, and is engaged in farming in Sidney; and James.

Mr. and Mrs. Howes have one son, Fred E., born June 10, 1885, who now attends school in District No. 7. Mr. Howes is very prominent in town affairs, and has held various offices of trust. He is Justice of the Peace, has been Inspector and Auditor, and was a member of the Republican County Committee during the years of 1881 and 1882. He is a Republican in politics, and is widely known and esteemed.

Notes for MARY KAY JENKINS:

In an email letter from Mary Kay Jenkins to Joyce Stokes Crevier dated Oct. 24, 2003, "Kay" writes the following:

Hi Joyce,

Thank you for the summary of how your life has been – it seems life has mountains for all of us to climb. As a kid I hated life in N.Y., as mom had to struggle to keep all eight of us fed – the only fun I can recall is going to church and Hancock Camp – and you and your family are a large part of that memory.

I met my husband while working in Schenectady and knew right away that our future would be together. He was a developer and we did a tremendous amount of travel the first five years of marriage – my son Mark was born in Pheonix, AZ. and Chris was born two years later in 1961 – in San Diego. We were building stores all over the country. Wally had a hard youth, as he was raised in a children's home, so we both knew about hard times.

In the late 60's we decided to get off the road, as it was bad for the kids and we hated traveling, even though one sees a lot of the country, and settled in California. Wally went into business for himself and was quite successful. In 1979 Wally took Mark on a fishing trip, as Mark had just got home from the Marines. The plane crashed and Wally was killed instantly – Mark lived four days.

Kris likes the Navy, but does not take to motherhood, so I raised my grand-daughters in Auburn, CA., where my mother lived the last 20 years of her life. I never remarried, as the girls kept me busy and it would be hard to improve on what I had. I bought a large piece of property and fenced it and got the girls a variety of animals, etc., and dug a pool, and in short, my later years have been watching the girls grow.
Love, Katie
